COST AND LESS THAN COST

Commencing on Monday

AUGUST 5

WE WILL OFFER EVERYTHING IN EVERY DEPARTMENT OF OUR STORE AT COST.

NOW IS YOUR TIME TO
Lay in Your Winter Boots and Shoes,
CLOTHING, ETC.,
AND SAVE THE PROFITS YOU WILL BE COMPELLED TO PAY
AFTER AWHILE.

In the meantime we are open to propositions from parties who may wish to buy one of the best paying businesses in this country. We will sell all or a portion of the stock, with our good will, upon the most favorable terms. If you have capacity and integrity but no money, we will loan you the money to prosecute a business that will net you five thousand dollars per annum, though you may sell on the shortest possible profit. Our trade is all cash, and the class of customers is the nicest to be found anywhere. Here is a rare chance for an industrious, energetic man to make BIG MONEY.

Should we receive propositions from purchasers for the stock, the Cost Sale mentioned above will be withdrawn.

LOCAL CULLINGS AND COMMENT.

All kind of plated and solid gold jewelry at Martin's.

J. C. Riley, has a lot of fine brick for sale at reasonable prices. 19 ft.

Died, Sunday, August 11, 1897, at 5 o'clock P. M., William Oglesby.

Just received at Gunther's everything that is good in grocery line.

John Wesley Cannon, of Sulphur Springs, has been granted a pension.

Martin is the man to do all your watch, clock and jewelry repair work.

The town trustees are having a well dug on the corner of street near the Hartford House.

A. J. Goff and Bettie Calverts were married at Killdeer, Tenn., on the 9th inst.

You just ought to go to Martin's and buy a pair of those $3.50 pebble spectacles. Best in the world.

Mr. Thos. Stratton of the Kinderhook neighborhood gave a social to the young people last Saturday night.

WANTED:—An energetic man to represent us in Ohio county as sales agent. WAMAMAKER & BROWN, Philadelphia. The largest Clothing and Merchant Tailoring House in America.

Everybody go to Horton, Ky., Saturday to see the Hartford and Science Hill base ball clubs play a match game of ball, and be at the great Gunther and Thomas pie-die, day and night.

James Esby and Belle Barnard, of McHenry, were married at the residence of W. G. Duncan, at 7:30 o'clock last Thursday evening, in the presence of a large circle of friends. They were the recipients of many nice presents.

Mr. Hoeker made a magnificent race for the Senate in this county. He made friends everywhere, and without the expenditure of a cent of money and with only a very few days canvassing carried the county handsomely. (Muhlenberg Echo).

The photograph still attracts crowds to hear it "talk." Mr. Walker frequently gives semi-public exhibitions of its powers and peculiarities. The perfect imitation of the human voice, brass bands, piano and other instruments are among its rare powers.

Sewing Machines Cheap. Second-hand sewing machines in good condition, which I will sell cheap for cash or trade. GROSS WILLIAMS.

Mr. John Bell, of Point Pleasant, had his left arm broken a day or two ago. He was able to be out to the Association yesterday, though his arm was heavily bandaged.

D. F. Tracy, an old soldier and a hard working citizen, applied to Poland for a place in the revenue business. Did he get it? No! But instead of C. M. Kimbley, who was nothing but a child at the time of the late unpleasantness, was chosen instead of Tracy. This looks like recognizing the old soldiers, does it not?

Miss Leona Berryman, daughter of B. P. Berryman, living about three miles South-west of Hartford, was bitten by a copper-head snake last Friday while in the garden gathering beans for dinner. She was bitten on the lower part of the ankle. Drs. Pendleton and Miller were summoned at once. She is doing as well as could be expected.

The Hartford Cornet Band has been engaged to make music for the Horse Cave Fair, commencing September 17th. This band has twelve members, and is under the leadership of Prof. L. B. Bean, one of the best musicians in the State. The members of this band, are young men of high moral standing, and we know the people of Horse Cave will be entertained in the highest musical order.

The ladies aid society of McHenry will give the grandest pie-die of the season at that place Saturday, August 24th, 1897. The proceeds to go to supplement the funds already in the treasury, to be used in furnishing the church that is to be erected there in the near future. There will be all kinds of refreshments on the grounds. Every conceivable amusement suited to the occasion. A sumptuous dinner with menu complete, for only 25cts. Considering the object of the pie-die, the zeal of the committee of ladies in charge, every one who can do so, should go and patronize the pie-die liberally.

Below we give the names of parties appointed as store-keepers, gaugers and shore-keeper gaugers by Poland last Saturday in Ohio and adjoining counties:

Anderson's Residence for Sale.

Here is an opportunity to secure a home, such as you may never have again. One of the most desirable places in this country for sale very cheap, and on your own terms. Payments as easy as the cost of rent. There are features about the place which make it more valuable than gold or silver—all of which will be explained to the purchaser upon calling on the owner.

DIED.

DAVIS.—At the residence of her mother, Mrs. S. F. Hardwick, Hartford, Ky., at 2 o'clock P. M., August 13, 1897, in the 37th year of her age, Mrs. Elizabeth Davis, wife of Dr. Amos Davis. Mrs. Davis has for the past few years been a constant sufferer of the much dreaded disease, consumption. She leaves a devoted husband, two children, a mother, brothers, sisters and a host of friends who mourn her untimely taking away.

JARBOE.—At his home in Kismet, Fla., Tuesday, July 30th at 1 o'clock P. M., W. S. Jarboe, after a lingering and severe spell of sickness, died at the age of 102 years. Indeed that the grim monster, death should invade this household and carry off this young man the idol of a devoted mother and sister, Mr. Jarboe was born in Lewisport, Hancock county, Ky., 25 years ago, though for several years past has resided in Florida. He has been suffering severely for the past few months, and for the past two months has been confined to his bed. The editor of this paper has known Mr. Jarboe for two years, and while we were not permitted to see him during the last days of his life, we have it from proper authority, that he endured his sufferings patiently, was perfectly resigned, ready for the masters call, and passed out quietly with a firm trust and belief in Christ. His last words were that he was ready and willing to go. He was kind and true-hearted, ever ready to help a friend, and did what he thought to be right. A home is bereft—many hearts are sad, and the voice of a loved one is heard no more. * * * The Altoona Register.

The many friends of Mr. Jarboe in Hartford will learn with regret, his untimely taking away. Mr. Jarboe was one of the types on the Heralds under its former management, was a worthy young man, and to know him was to think well of him. We extend our most heart-felt condolence to his bereaved mother, brother and sister.

Supper.

The Ladies Aid Society of the C. P. Church gave an ice-cream supper, and entertained at Mrs. Lou Collins Friday night consisting of all the choice refreshments the season afforded together with the most beautiful and artistic decorations and illuminations. The Hartford Cornet Band was on hand and made sweet music for the occasion. A large and liberal crowd was in attendance, and after dropping fifty four dollars into the treasury, went home feeling that "it was good to be there."

Quarterly Meeting.

The fourth quarterly meeting of the Hartford circuit will convene at Goshen next Saturday, the 17th. Let all of the officials be present, and all of the committees be ready to report.

QUALITY CORNER.

We had the pleasure of attending a children's pie-die last Wednesday, given by Mrs. D. and Mrs. Wm. Feemster, in honor of their little niece, Miss Belle Coombs, of Lexington, who, with her mamma, are visiting relatives here.

The two Mrs. Feemsters had prepared a sumptuous dinner for the little ones—and they enjoyed it very much—as well as tripping the light fantastic, with no thought or care of precisions rules. The most beautiful and crowning feature of the day was the rehearsal of "All Must Work,"—and "My Mother's Beautiful Hands" by Miss Belle Coombs, and long after she drifts away from the many friends she has made here, will the memory of her fairy form be gayly dancing in our memory's castle.

Mrs. Samuel Haycraft, daughter of Mr. M. Arther, and her three children, Master Samuel, Chester and Miss Emma, are making their annual visit here. Every one of our Corner very much enjoy this lady's visits here. She throws aside all city formalities and is so entertaining, pleasant and kind that all enjoy her transient stay during the hot summer months.

Mrs. Dotson, of Newton, Kansas, and daughter, Miss Flora, Mr. Norris Lashbrook and brother, Master George, of Masonville, are visiting Mr. R. N. Duke's family. It has been twenty years since Mrs. Dotson was in this part of the State. Her husband, many years ago, was pastor of Wesley Chapel, of No Creek, three years. She has traveled a great deal, and is quite a cultivated lady. Her sister, Mrs. Acton, whose health is very delicate, will go home with her, and of all the sad good-byes I ever uttered, this will be among the saddest.

HURRIEDLY, TUCKER.

KINDERHOOK.

No sickness in the community, nor not much news.

Farmers are busy working in their meadows.

Mrs. Nora Rudd arrived at Mr. Joe Foster's last Friday eve.

Mrs. Carrie Hoke and Mrs. Portia Claggett, are guests at Mr. Frank Peyton's.

Miss Ada Patton visited in Hartford last week.

Miss Gertrude Mills visited friends in the Shinkle Camp neighborhood last week.

Mrs. R. P. Sorrells and family have moved to Rosine. His accomplished daughters will be greatly missed in Kinderhook society.

Mr. Joseph Milligan and wife were at Equality last Sunday to hear the Rev. W. L. Caskey preach. Mr. A. C. Ellis and his accomplished daughter, Miss Pearl, were also in attendance.

Mr. J. K. Smith and wife, Centertown, were visiting in Kinderhook Sunday.

Miss Maud Sanders, Bels, spent Saturday and Sunday with your scribe.

Mr. J. R. Williams was given a birthday reception by his parents last Saturday night, and notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, there was quite a number of young folks present and all seemed to enjoy themselves very much.

LITTLE SIS.

A Vacancy in the Naval Academy at Annapolis.

I have received notice from the Secretary of the Navy that a vacancy has been created in the Naval Academy at Annapolis by the resignation of E. B. Anderson from the Fourth District of Kentucky.

I desire to give notice to those wishing to compete for the appointment, that there will be a competitive examination held at Grayson Springs, Grayson county, Kentucky, on Friday, August 23rd, 1897, beginning at ten o'clock A. M. The applicants must be not under 15 (fifteen) nor over 29 (twenty-nine) years of age, on the second of next September. And they should be physically sound, well formed and of a robust constitution.

The following, being XI of the regulations governing the admission of candidates into the Naval Cadets, will give candidates all the information that can be afforded as to the character of examination that they will have to be subjected to, both before the competitive board at Grayson Springs and at the Naval Academy.

§ XI. Candidates will be examined mentally by the Academic Board in reading, writing, spelling, arithmetic, geography, English grammar, United States history, and algebra. Deficiency in any one of these subjects will be sufficient to insure the rejection of the candidate.
